REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

The Board of Governors of the Society of the Lying-In Hospital of the City of New York presents the following report of the Society for its one hundred and sixteenth year:

An examination of the accompanying report of the Medical Board will show how actively this Society has been engaged during the past year in ministering to the needs of those for whom it was founded.

Mr. John Pierpont Morgan has most generously agreed for the time being to contribute to the annual working expenses of the Hospital to the same extent as had been done by his father, the late Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, and he is entitled for his generosity in this matter to receive the appreciative thanks of the citizens of New York as he has already received the heartfelt thanks of the members of the Board of Governors. Without this assistance the Hospital could not have continued the splendid work which it has been enabled to do. The Board of Governors rejoices to see that Mr. Morgan's example is being more and more followed by others, and the number and amount of annual subscriptions is being considerably increased each year. The Board feels that when the people of New York realize what a noble work is being accomplished at this Hospital, they will rally in greater numbers to its support, and help to provide ultimately an Endowment Fund sufficient to furnish the necessary income for the yearly running expenses.

As in the past, the Ladies' Auxiliary has been of great help in many ways to the Hospital, and the thanks of the Board are gladly given to the members who have devoted so much of their time and energy in the active work of the Auxiliary. An examination of the list of donations for the year will show that the hope expressed in the last Annual Report that the Ladies' Auxiliary would use its influence to induce more persons to become annual subscribers to the working funds of the Hospital, has been fully realized.

During the past year the bequest contained in the will of the late Lilla Gaites for the endowment of a bed in perpetuity has been paid, and it is greatly hoped that an increasing number of persons interested in the work of the Hospital will adopt this means of perpetuating their interest, and that ultimately most of the beds in the Hospital will be endowed. No better memorial can be suggested for perpetuating the name of some dearly loved friend or relative, and if all the beds in the Hospital could be endowed, a long step would have been made towards the completion of the Endowment Fund which it is the Hospital's foremost aim to secure.

An examination of the form of certificate issued by the Hospital, shows that a person endowing a bed in perpetuity not only has the power to name patients to such bed during his or her lifetime, but may also transfer this right by will or by deed.

We desire to express our thanks to all of those who during the past year have contributed money to meet the current expenses of the Hospital, and we trust that each ensuing year will see the amount of these subscriptions gradually enlarged. The Governors realize that if they can secure a large body of contributors to the Hospital, they will have accomplished a great point in endearing the work of the Hospital to the public and in assuring its permanency.

The thanks of the Board are hereby tendered to those who have during the past year shown their interest in the work of the Hospital by donations of clothes, flowers, fruit, magazines, etc.

The Private Patients' Pavilion has been used largely during the year, and it is hoped that soon the receipts from this source will aid in paying the running expenses of the Hospital.

In conclusion, it is especially desired to direct the attention of the public to the large part of our work which is done outside the Hospital Building. We are proud of our record for cases treated in the patients' own homes, a work which we are enabled to do successfully by reason of the assistance received from the Ladies' Auxiliary.

The Lying-In Hospital is acquiring each year a more prominent position among similar institutions of America, and if the cases treated in the Hospital are added to those treated in the patients' homes, the work accomplished entitles it to rank as one of the leading maternity hospitals of the world.

Persons who at any time become interested and who may desire to visit the Hospital, or obtain further information about the details of our work, will be gladly received and full information will be given upon application being made to the Superintendent of the Lying-In Hospital.

New York, November 1914.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL BOARD.

It is a pleasure and satisfaction to record continued progress and improvement in the work accomplished by the Hospital during the past year. The general depression in business has resulted in an increased number of women who have applied to the Hospital for assistance during their confinement. The European war has even affected us to the extent of bringing applications for admission from the wives of soldiers of the different warring nations who were called to their colors.

The routine work of the Hospital as a teaching institution has continued and serves as an incentive to the propagation of a better practical knowledge of this important branch of medicine. In addition to the undergraduate students who have thus obtained their first practical knowledge of obstetrics, we have had a large number of graduates from all parts of the country as close observers of the work of the Hospital. Moreover, the graduation of about fifty young physicians from the resident staff provides an addition to the large number already scattered throughout the country who carry our standards in this branch of medicine with them. Another factor in the dissemination of knowledge by the Hospital is the BULLETIN, which now enters upon the tenth year of its publication. It is a pleasure to note the increasing interest and attention which is being accorded to this publication. Its contents are contributed entirely by the members of the Attending Staff.

A reference to the statistical portion of this report shows that there has been an increase in the number of cases in both the Indoor and Out-door Departments. In addition to this phase of the Hospital work, attention must be directed to the intimate connection between the clinical and pathological departments. Under the able conduct of the pathologist and his resident assistants, the routine work of the laboratory has been placed on a firm basis and the services of the laboratory are now regarded as a most essential adjunct of the work of the Hospital. During the past year various original researches have been prosecuted by the pathologist and his staff. The investigation into the prevalence of syphilis in the patients applying for the services of the Hospital is being continued and it is hoped within a short time to obtain some very valuable data in this connection. The actual treatment of these cases is also being attempted, although the high cost of the drugs used in the injection treatment has been somewhat of a check on the development of this work.

The endowment fund for the study of puerperal fever, so generously provided by Mrs. Helen Hartley Jenkins in memory of her sister, has furnished the material resources for the further prosecution of this important life-saving work. No epoch making discoveries can be hoped for but the final result must depend on continued and painstaking study and observation. It is along these lines that the work has been continued. The open air method in the treatment of child bed fever and its complications in the Solarium and on the roof of the Hospital has been continued with satisfactory results.

The Ladies' Auxiliary has rendered efficient assistance in cleaning the homes of patients, providing them where necessary with food, clothing and fuel, and in cases of in-door patients, the placing of destitute women and their babies in homes or other institutions or securing work for the mothers, whereby they may be able to provide for their children themselves.

The work of the Babies' Class has been further developed under the faithful attendance of the members of the pediatric staff and the ministrations of the visiting-nurse have been more than repaid by the gratitude of the patients. The young mothers with their first babies who are practically ignorant of all the known methods of taking care of their offspring during the first year, have learned to regard this phase of the Hospital's activities with great confidence and respect, as is witnessed by the constantly increasing number of mothers who bring their babies to this class after their discharge from the Hospital. It also keeps the mothers themselves in touch with the institution for treatment in subsequent confinements.

The increasing restrictions on the midwife system by the New York Department of Health has resulted in a very large reduction in the ranks of these women, who now number scarcely 1400 in comparison with a total of over 3000 a few years ago. This means an extension of the substitute agencies for these women. As the poorer and cheaper class of midwives is being eliminated, their clients find it necessary to look elsewhere and many of them turn to the hospital who had never considered such a step previously. A large number of women are still ignorant of the assistance which is offered to them by our Institution. It is hoped, however, that they may be placed within reach of our Hospital facilities by a system of convenient sub-stations provided for their registration and examination, scattered throughout the lower portion of the city. In this way a large district hitherto unreached, will be brought under the direct influence of the Hospital.

The question of obtaining a sufficient number of nurses for the proper working of the Hospital becomes more acute year by year, as the number of pupil nurses sent to us from other hospitals is diminishing both in number and in quality. In our Out-door service we are particularly handicapped by a lack of properly trained nurses who might act in the capacity of visitors both before and after confinement.

The modern hospital has functions aside from the direct care of its immediate occupants. It must serve as a center for dissemination of knowledge to the profession and the public, and also as a guide to the health activities of the community. In a maternity hospital this implies, in addition to the care of the woman during her confinement and convalescence therefrom, a closer observation of the period of pregnancy itself. We regret to acknowledge that this so-called prenatal work has not been satisfactorily carried on in our institution, largely for lack of funds. Women ought to be seen much earlier in their pregnancy than is now the case and must be educated to present themselves at a period much in advance of the usual custom. In this way a great many complications of pregnancy may be avoided and the woman put into a better condition to successfully bear and rear her child. This constitutes one of the most important of the newer activities of maternity hospitals and it would be very fortunate if it could be further developed in our own. The after-care of these patients is also important. In a large number of women who have children born out of wedlock or whose husbands have deserted them, the orphanage is the final resting place of their offspring. These women should be given an opportunity to care for their children and the hospital ought to have an opportunity of entering more closely into relation with other organizations that would be in a position to develop this situation.

Provision for the care of wives of men earning moderate salaries is also essential. Such women ought not to be pauperized by being placed in the free wards when they are not in a position to engage higher priced rooms in the private pavilion. In many instances it means that a difficult confinement is of necessity carried out in a home without the proper surroundings, much to the detriment of the mother and her child. This phase of the Hospital's activities requires attention and it is hoped that in the near future it will be possible to provide such hospital care for women of moderate means.

The statistical details of the number of undergraduate and post-graduate students, the nurses, and patients follow in the subsequent pages.

The generosity of the Board of Governors in supplying the necessary funds for the maintenance of our Institution is gratefully appreciated by the attending medical staff and will serve as a continuing incentive to keep this Hospital in the front rank.

CASES VISITED AND RELIEVED

BY

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Extracts from the Reports of Mrs. Kerr, Visitor,

No. — Ludlow Street — Third Child. Family very poor, living in two dark rear rooms. Man deserted three months ago; said as he could not secure work his family would be better off without him. Woman trying to make a living by taking lodgers, who pay her one dollar each, per month, for privilege of sleeping on floor. Gave her all necessary assistance and sent in cleaner daily. Woman up on second day, but suffered relapse, and was quite ill for another ten days. Very grateful for all kindness.

No. — Washington Street — Second child. Family living in one wretched room over a stable. Man formerly made a good living for his family by running an elevator but lost his position on account of intemperate habits. Since that time he has picked up an occasional days' work on the water front, barely sufficient to keep them from starving. Woman will resume office cleaning when well, placing babies in a day nursery. Very grateful for clothing, food and care.

No. — Delancey Street — Seventh child. Man a clothing presser, working irregularly, and earning very little. One boy peddling, earning one dollar weekly. Conditions miserable. Joint income insufficient for such a large family. Crowded in three small rooms, and suffering extreme poverty: man's only regret seeming to be, that he cannot give his children a higher education. Helped the patient in every way possible for which she was very thankful.

No. — Madison Street — Ninth child: eight of whom are in Europe with relatives. Couple came to America three years ago, expecting in a few months to send for their children. Man has had very little work as laborer, and woman has found it at times very difficult to support herself and husband. Patient quite despondent. Feels that now with infant to care for it will be impossible to save money. Advised to apply to Hungarian Society for advice, and possibly assistance in bringing children to America, or returning to them. Very thankful for all help and advice.

No. — Forsythe Street — Third child. Man died four months ago, leaving family destitute, and woman unable to work. She has managed to earn food by peddling, and United Hebrew Charities has paid rent. Poor neighbors have been kind, aiding a little with clothing for children, and in these ways she has managed to keep home together. Feels that she is now more helpless than ever with young infant. Gave clothing for herself and baby, and sent in cleaner daily until woman recovered. Advice and addresses given in regard to placing of children in day nursery.

No. — East 13th Street — Twins, making in all seven children, the oldest of whom is ten years. Man a tailor earning a fair living for family, and paying rent for three rooms, patient stated this was fifth "Broome Street confinement," but the first time she had prepared outfit for baby. Very proud of effort, but embarrassed at advent of two, as she had provided for one. Supply given to supplement same for which she was very grateful.

No. — East 5th Street — Tenth living child; five have died. Family considers itself quite comfortable, although all are living in three rooms, with beds and bedding piled in every corner. Two children are working, their joint earnings amounting to about $7.00 weekly. This with the man's earnings, as a presser, makes them appear very prosperous. Woman tells of desperate poverty they suffered when children were all small. Very grateful for care of doctor and nurse which was all she required.

No. — Rutgers Place — Sixth child. Man very old and quite feeble, struggling to make a living as travelling clock mender. Woman young, but on account of large family of small children unable to earn anything; consequently miserably poor. Says she will take a second room, and try to keep lodgers when well. Gave her assistance in clothing and food which she appreciated greatly.

No. — East 13th Street — Fourth child. Family make a living by keeping boarders. Occupy three rooms, in which are nine beds and a cradle, place crowded and filthy, and infested with vermin of all kinds. Man warned that as such over crowding is contrary to law, he must change manner of living, or Board of Health would be notified, promised to consider advice. Woman provided with clothing and care for which she was very grateful. Inquiry made later revealed fact that man had removed to another district renting basement of five rooms.

No. — Goerck Street — Fourth child. Man deserted family three months ago leaving it destitute. Claimed to be overwhelmed by growing responsibilities, and left saying he would return to Europe, and remain there until children were old enough to go to work. Woman assisted in every possible way, and advised to apply to United Hebrew Charities for assistance in locating and prosecuting husband.

No. — Cherry Street. — Fifth child. Family poor, man only earning $6.00 weekly. Living in three miserable dark back rooms for which they pay eleven dollars monthly. Obligated to burn oil lamp all day which vitiates the air. Woman ekes out small income by renting out one room for three dollars monthly. Found patient requiring everything for comfort. Gave her clothing and milk supply, and sent in cleaner daily.

No. — Ludlow Street. — Third child. Two Hungarian families, a total of nine people in two rooms. Both men out of employment, dependent on work of women for support of families. Patient worked at office cleaning until three days before confinement, and hopes to resume on sixth day. Says her employer expects her back in less than one week, as that is the time limit of absence from work. Both men longshoremen with no prospect of work. Woman very grateful for help in clothing. Not needing caretaker.

No. — Broome Street. — Third child; oldest $2\frac{1}{2}$ years of age, and second one year. Both still bottle babies, and child of one year not walking. Man a tailor earning very small wages and no preparation made for confinement. Gave woman clothing for herself and infant, also sheets for bed. Scrub-woman sent in until patients' recovery.

No. — Pitt St. — Sixth child. Man a rag and junk dealer. Rooms filled with rubbish of all kinds, and very dirty, infested with vermin. Man warned that such conditions being contrary to law, he must at once remove his stock from living rooms or case would be called to attention of Board of Health. Visited again by agent on third day; found man had removed his business pushcart etc. to basement on same block. Scrub-woman then sent to thoroughly clean rooms, and to care for patient for a few days. Also helped her with baby clothes.

No. — East 9th Street. — Twins making four in all. Conditions miserable. Family in two small basement rooms. Man a tailor, unable to work steadily, owing to poor health. Woman unable to assist as oldest child is but three and a half years of age. Gave patient clothing for herself and infant; also special nourishment and care of scrub-woman. Very grateful, but refused to apply to Relief Societies for further assistance.

No. — Essex Street. — Third child. Family but a few months in America, man having not yet learned business whereby he hopes to maintain family. All living in one dark room, no ventilation, and oil lamp burning day and night. Patient on filthy mattress; refused to have it covered with sheet furnished by auxiliary, as it too would become soiled. Scrub-woman insisted and covered bed, only to find next morning, that sheet was rolled up and placed under pillow to keep it clean. Only threat of losing it compelled her to use it. Other clothing furnished for herself and infant, considered unheard of luxuries for a confinement bed.

No. — Goerck Street. — Fourth child. Family poor and very untidy. No mattress on springs, only an old comforter, and old coats to take its place. Man and woman both peddlers and rooms filled with old rubbish which they are supposed to sell off pushcart. No water in house above first floor which made work of scrub-woman very difficult as patient lives on fourth floor. Needing all kinds of clothing, also relief in food, all of which was provided and patient made comfortable.

No. — Monroe Street. — Seventh child; oldest ten years of age. Man is janitor of two tenement houses for which he receives $5.00 monthly, and two basement rooms free of rent. Woman, when well, ekes out meagre income by laundry work, which she does at home. Couple consider themselves quite prosperous, and have great sympathy for their poor neighbors. Very grateful for a little assistance in clothing, and care of cleaner for four days, when patient resumed work.

No. — West Houston Street. — Seventh child; oldest twelve years of age. Man an experienced restaurant cook, says he formerly earned $15.00 per week, but on account of failure of old employer, and loss of situation, is pleased to have found a place where he earns six dollars weekly. Woman when well finishes clothing for a sweatshop; says by working twelve hours per day she can earn $2.00 weekly. Hopes to resume work in a few days. Gave her assistance in clothing and milk, and sent in cleaner daily.

No. — Eldridge Street. — Second child. Man suffering from consumption, unable to work, was sent to Europe by a Society of which he is a member. Woman worked at days' work while able, and expects to resume in a few days. Says she can easily make a living for herself and children, and she has been supporting man for past seven months. Thankful for clothing and food and care of cleaner.

No. — Attorney Street. — Third child. Two families and boarders, a total of eleven people living in two rooms. Both men out of employment, and women supporting household by carrying on laundry work at home. Rooms full of washed and unwashed clothing, and old dirty bedding which they lay on floor at night for sleeping accommodations. Only one bedstead in rooms. Patient very thankful for attention, but claimed to need only clothing for infant, and care of doctors, as friend would attend to cleaning.

No. — Lewis Street. — Seventh child. Man idle for past four months; only support of large family, the earnings of a boy of sixteen years, who claims to make four dollars weekly. Man claimed to have spent the last of his savings for rent. Says he has always made a good living for his family, being an expert cloak maker, but owing to present business depression, the outlook is very uncertain. Self-respecting family, feeling keenly their present impoverished condition.

No. — Broome Street. — Second child; oldest only fourteen months old, and unable to walk. Man a tailor working irregularly, and scarcely able to support family. Woman distressed because she fears she will not be able to do her share during these dull times, on account of care of two babies. Given advice and directions, relative to use of day nurseries, for which she was very grateful. Helped her with clothing for infant, and milk supply.

No. — Pitt Street. — Fourth child. Miserably poor family living in one dark back basement room. Difficulty in locating place, as the entrance is through a dark alley. Man a vegetable peddler, and room stored with decaying fruit and potatoes. Odor from same, combined with that of oil lamp, stifling. Man told that produce must be removed from sick room or Board of Health would be notified on following day. Acted on advice given, and on second day room was thoroughly cleaned by scrub-woman. Case visited daily while woman was ill.

No. — East 17th Street — Eleventh child, only three of whom are living. Man died one month ago, leaving family destitute. Baby wrapped in dirty old coat. Gave patient clothing for herself and infant, and sent cleaner daily to make patient as comfortable as possible. Says she will be obliged to have two children committed to an institution, and will then take a situation with infant. Evidently inefficient and untidy.

No. — First Street — Third child. Man suffering from consumption, unable to work during past five months. Scarcely any furniture in two miserable rooms. Man showed agent a number of pawn tickets, everything available having been disposed of in that way. Woman worked while able, but recently family has been dependent on an aunt who goes out to days' work. Man has made application for admission to a home for incurables, and as soon as admitted, patient will break up home, and go to work again. Gave all necessary relief for which they were grateful.

No. — Eldridge Street.—Second child; family very poor. Man three months unemployed. Woman worked while able, leaving child with old mother, who is partially paralyzed. Were dispossessed one month ago, at which time neighbors begged on the street for sufficient money to pay one months rent for one room. Very thankful for assistance given in food, milk, clothing and care of cleaner. Also referred man to A. I. C. P. for possible assistance in securing work.

No. — Cherry Street — Sixth child. Miserably poor on account of illness of man, who claims to have been unable to work for past five months. Says they have been aided with rent and food until recently, when same was discontinued. Gave emergent relief in food and fuel, and sent in cleaner daily. Also sent man to down-town Hebrew Relief Society, which aided with clothing and $5.00 in cash. Very appreciative.

No. — 7th Avenue — Fourth child. Man deserted four months ago, leaving family destitute. Woman dispossessed one month ago, went to live with her mother who occupies one furnished room. Place crowded and untidy. Patient alone all day, as her mother works in a restaurant. Children would suffer from neglect, but for kindness of poor neighbors. Clothing, food, and care of scrub-woman provided by Auxiliary. Patient very thankful.

No. — Allen Street — Third child; man suffering from consumption. Has done no work in two years. Six weeks ago was sent to Home for Incurables. Rooms miserably bare, everything having been pawned. Woman in need of clothing of all kinds, food, milk, and care of scrub-woman. Gave neighbor address of Hebrew Relief Society, which helped with five dollars cash, and extra clothing. Patient will place two children in an institution, and try to support herself and infant.

No. — Henry Street — Fifth child. Rooms in great confusion, family having taken possession only a few hours prior to confinement. Patient very uncomfortable on old couch. Scrub-woman, with help of neighbor set up bedstead, and carefully removed woman to same, leaving her very grateful for kindness, also for assistance in clothing and food, and help in unpacking and placing of household goods.

No. — West 16th Street — Fourth child. Very poor but respectable colored family. Extreme poverty caused by man's loss of eyesight. Has been unable to work for past two years. Woman earns a living for family by working in a laundry. No preparation made for confinement. Gave woman everything necessary for comfort of herself and infant, and reported conditions at the laundry where she works. Learned later they had collected sufficient money to pay one month's rent, and send in food supply. Man advised as to method of making application for yearly pension of fifty dollars which City allows to destitute blind.

No. — East Houston Street — Third child. Family not destitute, but living from choice in an awfully crowded condition, in order to keep down expenses. Patient and two married daughters and their families living in four small rooms. Double bed in each room. Men all laborers, and earning sufficient to live decently. Pleaded with agent not to report circumstances to landlord. Required only doctor and nurse and first cleaning by scrub-woman.

No. — Columbia Street — Ninth child; oldest fourteen years of age. Family quite poor, man's earnings as tailor being insufficient to support twelve people. All living in three rooms. Gave clothing for woman bed and infant; also special nourishment in food and milk, and sent in scrub-woman regularly. Couple making great sacrifices to give children higher education, in order that they may become successful wage earners.

No. — Allen Street — Eighth child; oldest fourteen years of age, kept home from school to care for household. Girl evidently very anxious for an education, given address of office where she might make application for admission to evening school. Family crowded in three small rooms poorly furnished, and patient and infant needing clothing of all kinds. Same provided, and cleaner sent in daily to help girl in caring for mother. Very respectable poor people grateful for every kindness.

No. — Orchard Street — Eighth child; oldest thirteen years of age. Family of ten people living in two rooms. Needing everything to make patient comfortable. Clothing provided, and scrub-woman sent in until fourth day. When woman was found up and attending to household. Said she never wasted more than four days in bed, could not afford to. Man earns a meagre living for family by peddling vegetables. Says he expects to live always in same crowded condition until children become wage-earners, then he will rent a large flat.

No. — Ludlow Street — Sixth child. Conditions miserable; children all small, and man finding it difficult to secure work as a tailor, on account of blindness of one eye, and failing sight of the other. Woman manages to make a living when well by keeping six or eight boarders, who each pay $3.00 per week. All living in four small rooms. Man hopes he will be able to help a little until oldest child becomes a wage-earner. Very grateful for assistance in clothing and care of scrub-woman.

No. — East 6th Street — Eighth child; eldest thirteen years of age. Man a laborer earning small wages, but couple self-respecting. Patient showed with pride outfit which she had made for infant. Material which she had purchased for $1.00. Accepted gratefully relief in food and milk, but refused care of cleaner, saying her mother, who was quite feeble would be able with assistance of small girl to keep place clean and attend to children. Required only care of doctor and nurse.

No. — Washington Street — Seventh child. Family very poor, man having just resumed work after long period of idleness. Pathetic effort made to prepare clothing for infant and bed. Woman commended for same, and further supply of comfortable garments furnished. Very appreciative of them, and of care of scrub-woman for a few days.

No. — West 35th Street — Fourth child. Man died six months ago leaving family destitute. Woman did days' work while able, and poor relatives and friends aided later. Feel they cannot help further, and patient advised to commit, temporarily, three children to an institution and make an effort to support herself and infant. Promised to consider suggestion. Gave necessary clothing for comfort, and referred patient, when recovered, to A. I. C. P. which society would aid her in placing children, and securing work.

No. — Goerck Street — Sixth child. Man a tailor earning small wages, and family impoverished through effort to educate children. Girl of seventeen years and boy of fifteen in high schools. Smaller ones ragged and poorly nourished, rooms miserably furnished and untidy. Parents contented and happy looking forward to years of comfort and plenty when daughter shall have become a teacher, and son a dentist. Requiring clothing of all kinds for woman and baby. Which was furnished and cleaner sent in for a few days.

No. — West 16th Street — Fourth child. Woman Irish and man a negro. Patient claims he deserted her five months ago, leaving her destitute. Says she learned he has left the city with a colored woman. Gave all possible assistance in food and clothing, and sent in caretaker daily to keep her one furnished room as comfortable as possible. Woman advised to apply to Department of Dependent Children for commitment of same, (all colored) and then to resume work as cook and pay for their support as far as possible, if unable to compel man to do so.

No. — Monroe Street — Third child; oldest only four and a half years. Man works in coal-yard, earning one dollar per day. Family living in two back basement rooms for which they pay nine dollars monthly. Oil lamp burning all day, which makes air stifling. Gave woman all possible assistance in clothing and care, and sent in scrub-woman daily. Referred case to United Hebrew Charities, with recommendation that family be removed to more sanitary rooms on account of babies.

No. — Orchard Street — Eighth child; oldest twelve years of age. Man a peddler of vegetables, finding it almost impossible to support large family, and pay rental of fourteen dollars monthly. Says he ekes out a living by taking other peddlers to lodge, allowing them to store their stock overnight in sleeping-rooms. Gave assistance in clothing, and sent cleaner daily to make patients comfortable. Couple very grateful.

No. — Washington Street — Sixth child, eldest a boy of nine years. Man a longshoreman, three months idle on account of European war. Family miserably poor. Children kept from school for lack of clothing and shoes. Gave patient necessary clothing and food, and sent in cleaner, daily until she recovered. Agent advised sending children to nearest industrial school, where they would receive mid-day meal, and assistance in shoes and clothing. Very much encouraged by care and attention.

No. — Division Street — Seventh child; eldest a girl of fourteen years who earns $2.00 weekly. Man was sent to Europe seven months ago, suffering from consumption. Woman claims he was always kind to his family and that his illness was caused by working overtime, in an effort to support children. Patient required only assistance in clothing for infant and milk supply, as her old mother could care for her after first cleaning.

No. — Ludlow Street — Third child. Man deserted five months ago leaving family penniless. Told wife that he was going away to look for work, and that he hoped soon to be able to send her some money. Woman learned later, that he had left with a girl friend of the family and thinks she has paid his way taking him back to Europe with her. Patient has earned a living by keeping girl boarders, of whom she has six. All crowded in two small rooms. Three single beds in one room, and piles of old bedding in corners, which is spread on floor at night for sleeping accommodation. Helped her with clothing. Up and at work on fourth day.

No. — Eldridge Street — Eighth living child, one of whom is working earning four dollars weekly. Only other income that of mother who peddles when able. No. — East 13th Street. First child; only one in America. Three children still in Europe. Man working as laborer, and woman keeping six boarders, in two rooms, trying hard to save sufficient money to send for children and old grandmother. Living very miserably; no preparation made for illness. Gave patient clothing for herself, infant and bed. Also sent in cleaner until fourth day, when woman was found up and cooking for boarders.

No. — East 32nd Street — First child. Family very poor living in one room. Man very old and stupid, apparently unable to work any more. Patient second wife, a good looking woman of twenty eight. Says he had money, and a prosperous business when she married him, but now all is exhausted. Will return to her parents when well, and work for herself and baby. Man will live with a grandchild. Woman very thankful for care.

No. — East 17th Street — Fifth child. Family very poor, living in two small rooms. Man a laborer, usually out of work. Spends his time looking for an easy position. Claims to have found out that men who are willing to work at heavy work never succeed. So his wife supports family when well, by day's work, supplemented by charity, while the children are clothed and partly fed by neighboring Industrial School.

No. — Jackson Street — Second child. Two families, each having two children, also two girl boarders, all living in two small rooms. Placed comparatively clean, but awfully crowded with piled up bedding, which is laid on floor at night for sleeping accommodation. Both men idle, having been porters in an export house, which suspended business, on breaking out of European war. No preparation made for illness. Gave patient all necessary clothing, also milk supply, and sent in cleaner daily.

No. — Madison Street — Fifth living child; also five stepchildren and grandmother, making a total of thirteen people living in two small dark basement rooms. Asked why they rented such a miserable cellar; woman stated they would not be allowed to live on an upper floor, with such a large noisy family. Man earns a meagre living peddling horse whips. Says he once had a good business, but it has been ruined by automobiles. Patient needing everything to make her comfortable. Gave her all kinds of clothing, and kept place clean during illness.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly. That all such persons as now are, or hereafter shall be, members of the said institution, shall be and hereby are ordained, constituted and declared, forever a body corporate and politic, in fact and in name, by the name of "The Society of the Lying-In Hospital of the City of New York" and by that name they and their successors shall and may have continual succession, and shall be persons in law, capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, defending and being defended, in all courts and places whatsoever, in all manner of actions, suits, complaints, matters and causes whatsoever; and that they and their successors may have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at their pleasure; and also that they and their successors, by the name of "The Society of the Lying-in Hospital of the City of New York," shall be in law capable of purchasing, receiving, holding and conveying any estate, real or personal, for the use of the said corporation. Provided that the lands, tenements and hereditaments which it shall be lawful for the said corporation to hold shall be only such as shall be requisite for the purpose of erecting a public building and such houses or other buildings as may be suitable and necessary to the nature of the said institution, or such as shall have been bona fide mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business, or purchased at sales, on judgment which shall have been obtained for such debts; and with regard to all such lands, tenements and hereditaments so to be held by the said corporation as aforesaid, except such as may be for its immediate accommodation as aforesaid, or such as it may hold by way of mortgage, and whereof the actual possession shall be and remain in the mortgagors, their heirs or assigns, the said corporation shall be bound to sell and dispose of the same respectively within five years after it shall acquire the same, and shall not be capable of holding the same after the expiration of the said five years.

And be it further enacted. And be it further enacted. That the governors shall not take or receive any compensation for their services; and for the time being shall have power, to make and prescribe such by-laws, rules and regulations, as to them shall appear needful and proper touching the management and disposition of the stock, property, estate and effects, of the said corporation, and touching the duties and conduct of the officers of the said corporation, and touching all other matters as appertain to the business, ends and purposes, for which the said corporation is by this act instituted; and shall also have power to appoint an apothecary, house pupils, matron, stewards, nurses and servants, for carrying on the business of the said institution.
